THE DECATOR TURNERS.
They Win First Prize at Pekin and Come Home with Flying Banners.

Other Victories—Henry Metz Gets First Prize for Best Declamation.

The Decatur Turners and their many friends are feeling good all over to-day on account of many victories won by the Decatur team at the Bezirk at Pekin this week. The glad news got here this morning, and when the train arrived the victorious team found Goodman's Cornet band and a delegation of jubilant Turners at the depot to welcome the class which has been instructed by Herman Webber, the teacher. The procession formed in line and the class was escorted through the streets to the hall with banners flying.

THE WINNERS.
This is the first time in the history of the Decatur Turn Verein that its team has carried off the first prize at a Bezirk, and it is a victory to be proud of. They captured the first prize in Class Turning against the best teams in Illinois. The winners are Wm. Young, John Schwarz, Tim Ronan, George Long, John Brett and Ed. Grubel.

The committee on equalization were F. W. Winner, of Decatur, Mr. Braun, of Jacksonville, and Mr. Ghmolin, of Bloomington.

In addition to the above other prizes were won as follows:
Best Declamation—Henry Metz.
Single Turning—T. Ronan, 6th prize; Wm. Young, 12th prize; John Brett, 13th prize; John Schwarz, 14th prize.
Putting the Stone—Wm. Young, 2d prize.
Wrestling—Wm. Young, 2d prize.
Rope Climbing—John Brett, 3d ft. 10 in., 2d prize.
Running High Jump—John Brett, 5 ft. 9 in., 3d prize.
Running Long Jump—John Schwarz, 17 ft. 6 in., 3d prize.

The Congregationalists.
We learn from a reliable source that a movement is now on foot to form another church society in Decatur to be made up of Congregationalists, of whom there are a considerable number in this city and immediate vicinity. There are many of this faith now connected with the First Presbyterian church, and not a few are members of other churches in the community, while many do not belong to any society. The matter of establishing a Congregational church here has been under consideration for two years past. Mr. Wied, the State Missionary of the Congregational Society, having visited this community on several occasions. He was here last Sunday and conferred with the members of the Session, while not ready to advise the formation of the new society, individually bid Mr. Wied Godspeed in his efforts. Mr. W. is now in Chicago, but will return to-morrow, when in all probability the matter will assume definite shape.

"Narrow Way to Life"
The open air Bible lectures will be continued in the park to-night at 7 o'clock. The subject is annual above should interest all professing Christians.

Prof. J. N. WILKINSON, who has been the principal of the Decatur High School for several years at a salary of $1,200, has decided to leave this city, and accept the principalship of the public schools at Emporia, Kansas, at a salary of $1,600 a year. He wrote a letter yesterday addressed to the local board, declining the reappointment to his old place at the high school. Mr. Wilkinson, who is a most excellent instructor, leaves the high school in good condition and will take with him the best wishes of his scores of Decatur friends. It will be a difficult matter for the board to secure his equal as a teacher. Emporia is a town nearly as large as Decatur, with four miles of street railway, and the outlook there has decided to accept the offer tendered him. He is a useful man and will be greatly missed in the Y. M. C. A. and other societies, in each of which he has been an active member.

The Colored Voters.
Friday night the colored voters of Decatur township will meet at the tabernacle club room for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan club. Every colored voter is cordially invited to be present early and take part in the proceedings.

UNCLE DAVID GRAYSON has been investigating the cause of dead wheat in promising fields, and finds that worms are largely responsible for the failure of portions of the crop. He brought to the Republican office to-day three stalks of wheat in each of which appeared a number of small holes at the joints. The stalks were ripped open, and in each was found one or more lively worms a half inch in length, sapping the life out of the wheat. The wheat had headed, but there were no grains in them. The name of the worm is not known. Mr. Grayson says he never saw anything like them before, and is somewhat mystified by the discovery.

The Great "What Is It?"
S. S. JACK, the political enigma and chronic office-sacker of Decatur, was in Lincoln last night circulating among the democrats. Jack aims high, even though he is given little. He is aspirer for congress this year he will be delegated to remain at home, as the feeling of the Logan democracy is not in his favor.—Lincoln Journal.

The above, appearing in a democratic journal as it does, indicates pretty strongly that Bro. Jack lacks a good deal of standing solid with the Logan county nosebacks.

THE Board of Trade had one order of one thousand barrels of pork yesterday, besides other orders. It is a sure thing to have quotations each day and in time. So says Johnson.

D. C. MERRITT states that all told 600,000 brick will be used in the erection of the P. Leach building, on Water street, to be occupied by Morehouse, Wells & Co., as a wholesale hardware store. Efforts are being made to have the work done by August 1st. Work on the third story is nearly finished.

Excursion.
The Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railroad will run an excursion to and from points in Kansas and Nebraska on June 23d, at single fare for the round trip. Call on any Wabash agent or Thos. Bivins, over P. O. Decatur, Ill.

New patterns of Men's cloth lap dust, every variety cheap at J. G. STARR & SON's June 17-dtf

Opinion of Uncle Johnny Banks.
Uncle Johnny Banks, who split rails with Abraham Lincoln west of Decatur, and was his daily companion for many years in Indiana and Illinois, now resides within a few miles of Decatur. He is now in the 84th year of his age, and, barring the rheumatism, he says he is in good health for a man of his advanced years. Uncle Johnny, who was in the city yesterday, chatted pleasantly with a Republican reporter. He said Blaine and Logan is just the ticket for him, and if he lives he will vote it cheerfully. Since Tilden flew or slid off the track, Uncle Johnny has been talking with some of his Democratic friends and asking them what they are going to do now for a candidate. To those who say they'll vote for any man who is put up by the National Democratic convention, Uncle Johnny tells them that that's just what old Jeff Davis will do every time. He might also add that all friends of the "Lost Cause" also vote with the Northern Democrats.

Two YOUNG women, May Welby, past 18, and Jennie Hagg, aged 17, just for a lark left their home on Morgan street, in St. Louis last Thursday night, stopped at Litchfield and then came to Decatur. They registered at the Hotel Brunswick under assumed names. They kept shady, but last night James Hagg, step-father of Jennie, arrived in the city, and with the assistance of Captain Hewes, soon discovered the whereabouts of the girls. This morning Hagg took his daughter home with him. May Welby, who is a blonde and an opera singer, took up her abode at the Park Hotel, where she was seen by a Republican reporter. She says that she and Jennie were treated badly at home and that they left, intending to canvass towns for a Chicago book publishing firm. Jennie stated that she would run away again, and doubtless both girls will meet again, perhaps at Taylorville.

David M. Berly favors us with a copy of the Iowa State Register of May 25, which contains a five-column account of a visit to the infamous Andersonville prison pen, which at one time contained 13,000 prisoners and there over 13,000 men died. The Register gives what is said to be a faithful picture of the stockade.
Charles Condel, who is traveling through Wisconsin and Michigan, introducing the Big Gun Baking Powder, put up by the Big Gun Manufacturing Co., of St. Louis, was at Chicago, Wis., on the 16th, and while there he met Mr. J. G. Birley, formerly in business in Decatur with Mr. W. B. Abbott. Charles says Birley & Son have a large jewelry store at Chicago, and are doing well. "The family line a pleasure boat named 'The Comfort,' large enough to accommodate a party of 35, in which Charles and Mrs. Birley took a long cruise.
Going East.
The Grand Trunk Ry., of Canada, is the cheapest and pleasantest route to New England, the White Mountains, Saratoga and New York of any of the trunk lines. Passengers can go on the excursion train or the regular train the day following. Price of ticket to Portland, Me., and return, good for 60 days, $35.50. For further information write to Wm. Robinson, Mich. & S. W. Pass. Agt. G. T. Ry., Detroit, Mich., or inquire of A. S. Robinson, of the Territorial office, and get a descriptive pamphlet.
